Swimming at Camp W

By Olivia loBue

If you want to know what camp W does when we get to the Dix Hills pool then you will learn in this article! When I get to the pool I put down my towel and take off my shirt, pants, and my socks and shoes, under my clothes I'm already wearing my bathing suit. When we all have all our clothes off we start to do warm ups, which consist of big and little arm circles, moving our bodies side to side, and jumping jacks. Then we can get in the pool; when we get into the pool its freezing! We start off by doing twenty full-body dunks into the water, then we do big arms along the wall practicing the freestyle stroke, we also practice the proper kicking technique for the freestyle stroke. After we finish practicing we go to the deep side of the pool, using the stroke and kicking technique we just practiced, we also get to jump off the diving board! After that it is towel time, which means we dry off and get dressed again. When we are fully dressed we put sunscreen on and get on the bus back to Camp W.

Fourth of July Survey:

How do campers and staff celebrate July 4th?

By: Braydon Cohen and Brody Mackey

Camp W will be very quiet on Wednesday because Wednesday is JULY 4th! On Wednesday, we will have no camp. So, Brody and I surveyed 10 people to hear about what they're doing for July 4th. Here are the results to my survey.

So Brody and I surveyed 5 people each. Out of the 5 people I surveyed, 3 people said that they go watch fireworks. 1 person said that they will do nothing for July 4th, and 1 person said that they "go in their pool and stay in their house". What I did for the 4th of July was go to my Aunt's golf club for dinner. Up next now are Brody's results to his interview.

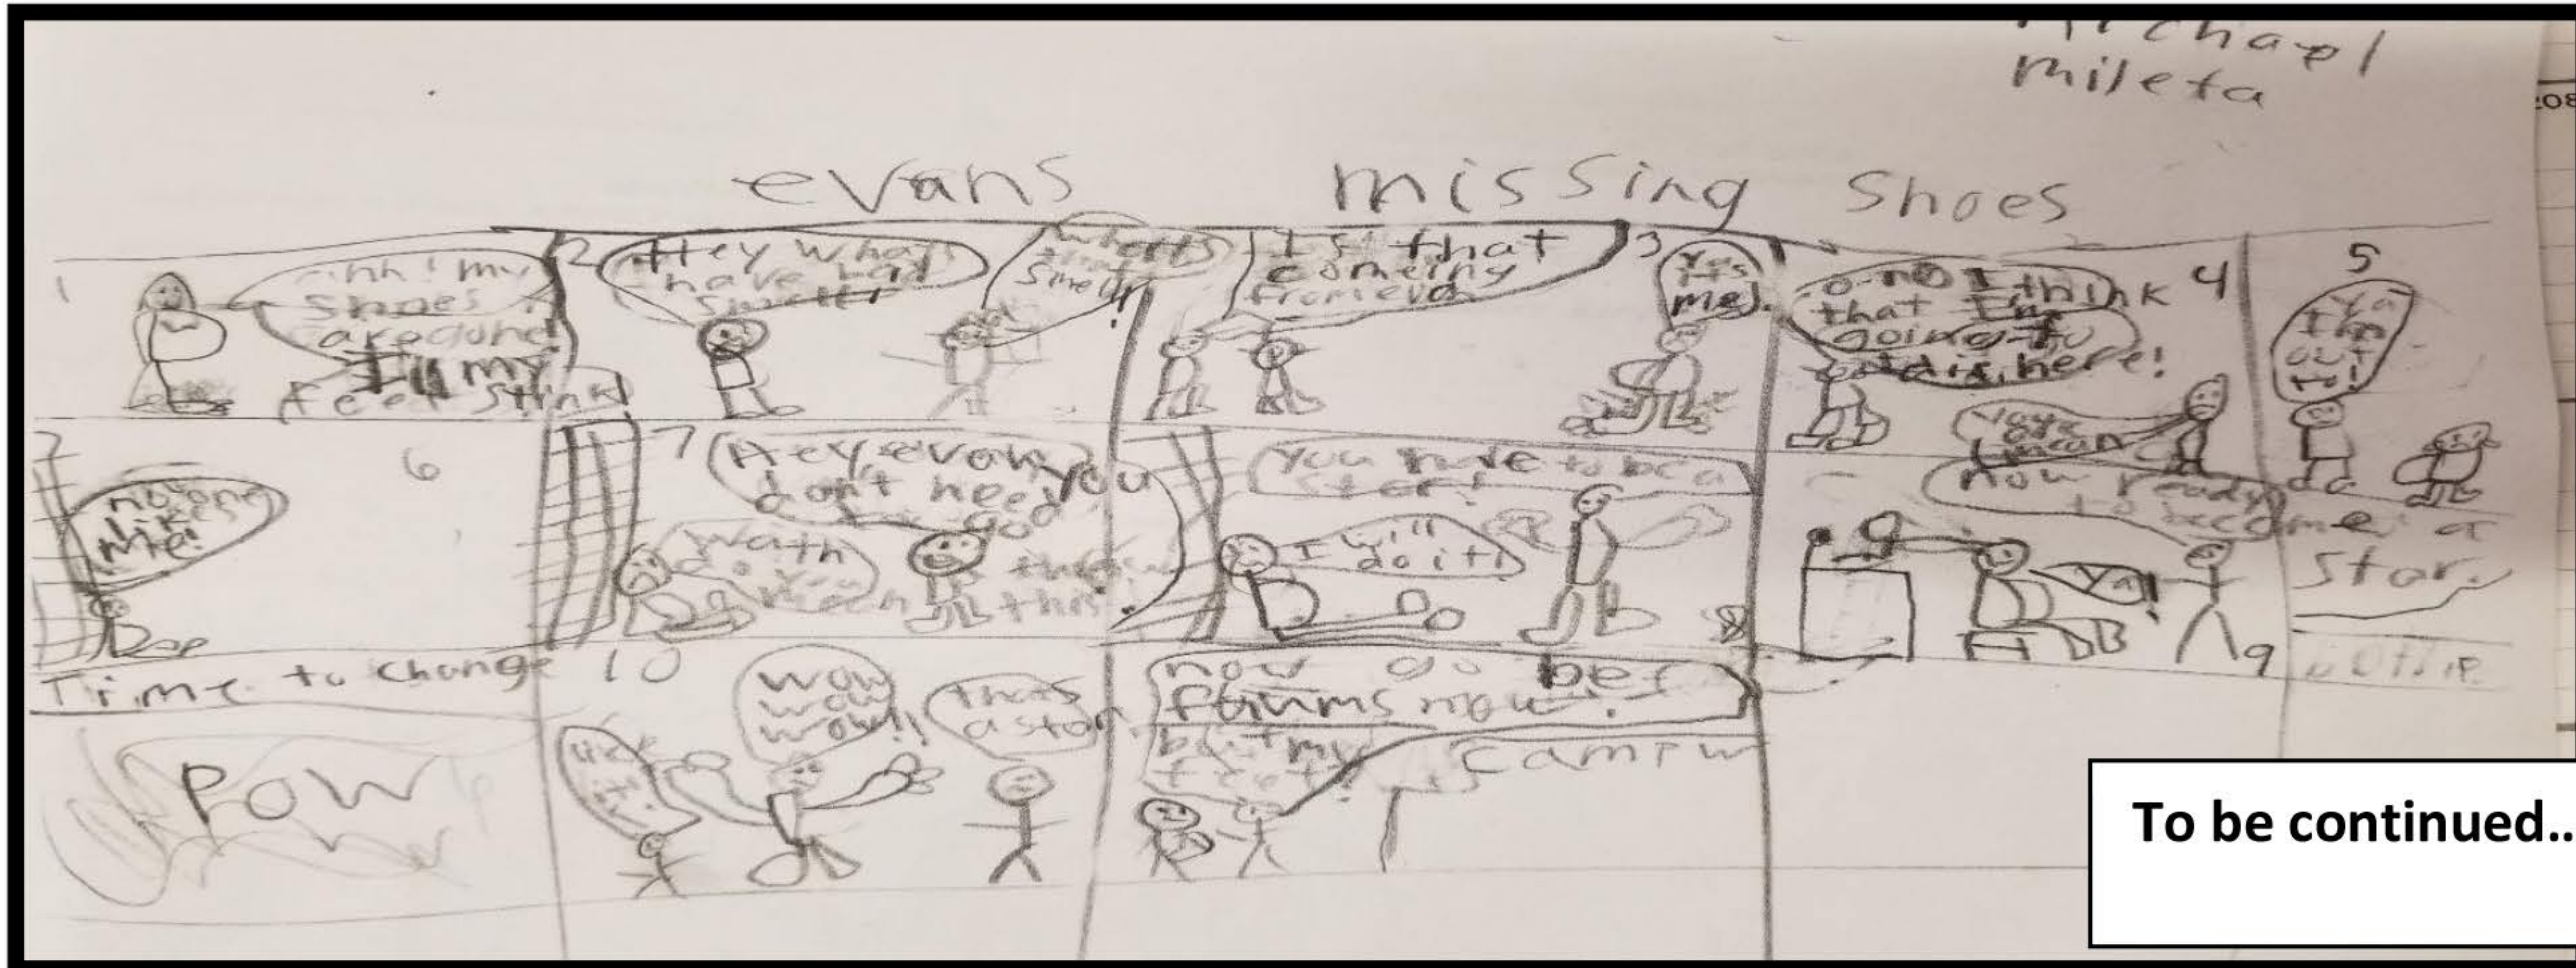

I interviewed Zach, the counselor of the "Wizards". He said he was going to watch the fireworks and have a barbeque with his family and friends.

I also interviewed Kevin, the counselor of the senior boys "B". He said for the 4th of July, he was planning for his daughter's birthday party. For the 4th of July, I went to my cousin's house and watch the fireworks.

I think I am seeing double...

By Jules

(Wildflowers Head Counselor)

Every Tuesday of camp we have a dress up day. The first week was 50's and we all felt like we fell into the movie Grease! This week we had twin day; we had twins walking all over the place. I had to do double takes more than once to check I was seeing what I was seeing! Kids from all different age groups dressed up like each other, some campers even decided to dress up like triplets! Many twins dressed up with red white and blue outfits in honor of 4th of July. All the campers enjoyed dressing up like a twin, I know I had a blast finding matching outfits! Next week is Tie Dye Tuesday... Groovy!

Hollyrock Entertainment is a game show company that has been in existence for 35 years. The best part about Hollyrock Entertainment is every event is different and tailored to the needs of the audience they are entertaining. On Monday July 2nd, Hollyrock Entertainment came to Camp W for a fun afternoon game show. The campers were able to take a break from the heat and compete in different kinds of questions and physical activities. The campers were split into two different teams, Team Red and Team Blue. The questions the teams were asked ranged from television shows, sports, movies, music, science, food and questions about Camp W. In between the rounds of trivia was physical challenges. The challenges were done in stages with oldest campers going against oldest campers, then youngest campers vs youngest campers, even the counselor's got to join in the fun! The physical challenges consisted of tug of war, hula hooping, Simon says, and dancing. The blue team ended up winning by only 100 points! All the campers had a blast!

CASINO DAY!

By: Braydon Cohen

On June 28th, 2018 Camp W had a lot of gambling time for CASINO

DAY!!!! Casino Day was hosted in the gymnasium. Casino Day is the day of camp where the gym is decorated to look like a casino (like in Atlantic City or Las Vegas). There were many different booths set up for Casino Day. If you won the game at the booth, you received casino chips. The prizes were candy, or mini toys. Read more to find out how awesome Casino Day really was. Like I said earlier, there were many different booths set up for Casino Day. Here are my eight favorite booths.

1. The “slap jack” booth where you saw a card and then you had to slap the same card in the deck.
2. The “bean boozled” booth where first, you had to pick a number in between 1-8 while being blindfolded. Then, you had to taste the jelly bean that had the number you picked. If you didn’t like the jelly bean, you got to spit it out in the garage.
3. The booth where you had to guess a number then roll two dice. If you guessed the number correctly, you got chips. It took me forever to guess the right number.
4. The booth where you had to get the Frisbee into the hula hoop.
5. The booth where you had to shoot bullets in a gun onto a card taped to the wall. I failed at that booth too.
6. The matching memory game.
7. The booth where you had to toss cards into a hat.
8. The booth where you had to guess three of a kind of cards.

Once you felt like you were done with each booth, you went to the prize station to get mini toys or lots of candy. In conclusion, Casino Day was really fun with so many booths and so many things to do. Kids came home with bags pouring out candy. I think it was amazing and I hope you do to! :)
