Your time to Shine!

By Jack Delman

Every Friday, Camp W has the tradition to put on Group Performance Skits. Each skit is performed on stage by each group. Each week, Evan announces a specific topic for groups to work on. The group then has the whole week to practice, and on Friday, during 7th period, we skip our choice period and go straight to the cafeteria, where the groups each perform their skit. Last week each group put on a dance, while this week was cheer. The judges, which for this week (week 3), are Alex from Computers, Meghan from Music, and Jorge from Soccer. Once all groups have performed, they vote secretly and then announce the winners. Even though not every group can win, it is still a lot of fun. I really enjoy the group performances because it unites my group as well as gets me out of my comfort zone to be on stage!

Baseball News:

Home Run Derby: Pete Alonso of the NY Mets hit 23 home runs in the final round to put him on top and make him the Home Run Derby Champ!

All Star Game: American League beat the National league 4-3 in the All Start game.

NY Yankees: Officially has the best record in the American League with a 59-32 record.

NY Mets: Dealt with some struggles this year but has a record of 42-51. They still have the 2nd half of the season to come back.

I'm Rich! I'm Rich! By Braydon Cohen

On Thursday, July 11, we had the Camp W Gold Rush! Throughout the day, staff had been hiding plastic coins in the field. During 8th period, every camper was in search of these treasures! Some of the older campers were nice enough to give their coins to the younger campers. One kid in my group (Aiden Dearborn), gave all his coins to his younger cousin Rosalba, who is in the Willows! When Evan said "Go" every camper ran around the entire field in search of gold. However, you had to be very careful not to be caught by a bandit who were running around as well with bandannas on their faces! At the end of the hunt, every camper got smarties candies.

Movie Review: Toy Story 4

By Jack Delman

Last week, I saw Toy Story 4 at the theater with my mom and dad. Don't worry, I'm not going to give away any spoilers here, but let me tell you, it made me cry a BUNCH! It is an amazing movie about Woody reuniting with Bo Peep after one of Bonnie's new toys Forky accidentally flies out of a van trying to escape Bonnie and the toys. I won't reveal anything else because I would hate to spoil anything else, but that is the basic gist of it. Overall, I would rate it a big 10/10. It is a bittersweet movie of an amazing adventure, and a great ending to the Toy Story saga.

Mwaa Ha Ha

By Braydon Cohen

Scary masks, skeletons, and monsters, those were all the different things in the spooky haunted house of Camp W! Some of the seniors even worked there, trying to scare innocent campers. My job was to hold a hideous mask while hiding behind it and saying "Keep Walking! Keep Walking!" It was fun! The room was decorated with black walls hanging down from the ceiling so the room would be pitch black. There was even a godzilla decoration bigger than me! Evan and another counselor Mike, were leading the tours while repeatedly saying "Follow me, follow me!" In conclusion, the haunted house was great with so many decorations and monsters. But remember, the next time you turn around... BOO!

Jester Jim

BY JACK RYAN

Yesterday, Jester Jim came to camp! What did he do? Well, what a jester would do. He was doing all sorts of cool tricks like beatboxing. He also juggled plungers. Not only did the campers participate, but the counselors were able to participate as well. Sean, the division head, got called up. Jim juggled 5 beanbags, and Sean caught all of them! It was so fun! Genna, went up and got a t-shirt of Jester Jim! Sean got toilet paper... so many different funny events happened! It was my favorite show! All the campers loved it, and I hope he comes back again next year!

The Candy Quest

By Aiden Dearborn

Candy Candy everywhere!!! The candy hunt took place Tuesday. It was very fun and exciting for everyone at camp. For 8th period, campers from kiddie camp up to the seniors went on a daring quest to find as much smarties as they could carry. The groups were split up into 4 quadrants of the field. whoever got assigned that quadrant couldn't go out of their quadrant. Some of the campers even shared their candy with other campers! Evan made an announcement that he would like to say "thank you because that's what's camps all about." In conclusion, everyone had fun and had lots of candy!!

Tasty Tasty Chocolate
By Jack Delman

On Wednesday, the seniors and juniors from upper camp went to the chocolate factory, Chocolate Works. It felt like I was in the Willy Wonka movies because we took a tour of a chocolate factory. Once we all sat down, we all got to grab a mold and create chocolate candy! We could add in toppings like marshmallows, M&M's, swedish fish, and more! Once we finished adding in our toppings, we gave them to the staff to be placed in the freezer. At the end of our tour, we were able to taste the chocolate that we had made once we got back to camp! Another activity we did was dipping a marshmallow on a stick or a pretzel in a chocolate fountain! It was delicious! Near the end of the tour, the staff did a little "candy trivia" where they asked each of us candy related questions and whoever answered them right got a lollipop! The tour was very exciting, and the staff were super nice to all the campers. The tour and trip were amazing, and I hope to go there again by myself and taste some sweet sweet chocolate!

Stay tuned for another exciting week at Camp W:
