

Evan Wofsy,
Camp Owner &
Director

About Evan

Evan began his camp career in 1985, and has taken active roles in all aspects of camp management. He spent over two decades working as a Sports Director, Program Director and Assistant Director for Camp Horizons in Livingston, NJ. Evan has been a middle school teacher since 1993 and is also the owner of Bar Mitzvah Bouncer Inc.

Evan's goal...for his campers to have the best summer ever! His philosophy of small groups with wonderful counselors will ensure that your child has a fabulous and memorable camp experience.

Dear Parent

One size fits all may be a great idea for socks, but when it comes to summer camp, it doesn't quite work.

Camp W's supportive nurturing atmosphere encourages your child to grow socially and emotionally. We see your child as you do, a receptive eager individual with unique talents, skills and interests. Our smaller groups, team building activities and many group based projects, initiates friendships among campers.

Camp W, "where friendships are made" located in Melville, NY, is a summer day camp that offers a broad range of activities for campers, ages 4-14. Our dedicated staff helps bring out the enthusiasm, skills, and confidence in every camper. Our nurturing environment encourages all our campers to make deep and lasting friendships through group activities, camper contests and team building activities.

Kiddie Campers (4 year olds - 1st Grade) have a set schedule with activities including athletics, arts and crafts, other activities and exciting weekly special events.

Middle Campers (2nd - 3rd Grade) similar activities as above with the addition of two choice periods every afternoon.

Upper Campers (4th Grade - 8th Grade) will follow the same program as Middle Campers but have three choice periods every afternoon.

Camp W ensures that each day is filled with excitement, new experiences and fun!

Choice Periods:

With many to choose from, campers will select activities as part of their schedule every two weeks. Your child will choose from a variety of sports, arts and many other electives. Watch what this does for your child's self-esteem, decision making abilities and independence!
