Superhero Day!

By: Ashley McNally, Nicole Dietz, Antonia Fiordalisi

Superhero day was a great day because we got to see people in their costumes! We interviewed Tanvi Patel and she said "I love superhero day because I enjoy wearing my costume and seeing people wearing theirs."

Tanvi dressed up as an alien villain! We interviewed Chloe Pezzello she said, "It was fun looking at everyone's costumes and they were very creative."

The Pie Eating Contest!

By Jack Ryan

Today we had the pie eating contest in camp! The people who participated were, Kate a counselor for the Wonderettes, Sam B (my cousin) a counselor for the Wildflowers, Phil a counselor for the Wizards, Mecca a counselor for the Wolfpack, Manny a counselor for the Willows, and Jorge the soccer specialist. The pies were blueberry and cherry flavored. All the counselors had to eat with NO HANDS. Phil from the wizards won the contest. It was fun to watch!

A Unique Talent..?

Interviewing Matthew Crehan from Senior Boys B

Q: You said you had a "unique" talent, what is it exactly?

A: "Drinking water through my nose. I learned it from my cousins in Russia."

Q: How did you learn it?

A: "My cousins were drinking water, and they said that it was faster to drink it through your nose. And then they said, "Hey Matthew, how about you try it?"

Q: Why did you try it?

A: "I don't know, I just decided to do it because it seemed pretty "cool" I guess."

Q: How much can you drink at a time?

A: "Maybe a small sip, I feel like any other portion size would be dangerous."

Q: Why such a small amount?

A: "Too much can apparently drown you, and also I didn't train for such a long amount."

Q: Why didn't you perform it in the talent show?

A: "I just forgot to sign up, anyways I would of played an accordion."

Egg Toss

By: Chloe Pezzello

1st toss, 2nd toss, oh no she's out. Did you see the egg toss? If not, I will tell you about it! All of the counselors and specialists that participated stood in two lines about 20 yards apart from each other. Then they slowly got further apart. Congrats to Jules and Christine who caught the egg the farthest apart. I'll tell you two hilarious highlights! Peter's assistant Angie got spattered with egg even though she caught it (Rick got a picture of it). And Kate from Wonderettes got her shoe all messy! I wonder what next year will bring!

The Senior Trip to SkyZone!

By Jack Delman

On Wednesday, the seniors and juniors went on a senior trip! This week, we went to SkyZone! SkyZone is basically an indoor trampoline park, and it is extremely fun! There are so many fun things to do there, such as jumping on trampolines, and jumping into ball pits! SkyZone is a very fun place, and it was amazing to go there. If you had money, you were able to buy food. There was also a wall that some kids got to climb, it was very challenging. You could try to climb 8ft, 10ft, or 12ft! A camper in Senior Boys B, Matthew Crehan, actually made it up to 12ft! I was extremely shocked, as I didn't think anyone would make it up there! SkyZone is such a fun place, and I really hope that I will be able to go next year and jump on some more trampolines!

The Talent Show!

By Jack Delman

On Monday, July 29th, camp ran a talent show for all of the talented campers! People were able to go on stage and perform their talents with confidence. A lot of kids were good at their talents, and even I was surprised. There was singing, dancing, and many more! It was very entertaining and all of the kids were amazing! For the kids that didn't want to watch (sadly), they were able to stay outside and play games like baseball, gaga, and more! The talent show was great and I loved all of the talent that was shown at camp!

CHOICE PERIODS

By: Chloe Pezzello and Tanvi Patel

Choice Periods are when campers get to choose what they do for 5th, 6th, and for upper camp, 7th. In choice periods campers get to do sports, art, game room, and so much more! Tanvi Patel's favorite choice is arts and crafts (or as Sean, would say "Arts and farts and jelly tarts."). Chloe Pezzello's favorite choice period is newscasters. Jack Ryan's favorite choice period is game room. Kate's favorite is newscasters. Campers love choice periods because they get to do what they love everyday. In the art choice period you are able to let your imagination run wild, in game room you can play the video game that makes you happy! In sports you can get tons of exercise while playing a sport you enjoy. Which choice period is your favorite?
